

About Ronald W. Nesbitt:

- 62-year resident of Webster
- 22-years as a Town Board Member
- 12-years as the Supervisor of the Town of Webster
- Instrumental in the creation of the Town of Webster's Open Space program preserving over 1,200 acres
- Construction of the First Responders Park, Playground and Spray Park
- Involved in the remodel and expansion of the Webster Public Library
- Oversaw the purchase of 74 acres of land at Xerox and then the construction of a new recreation center
- Oversaw the remodeling of the Van Ingen Court Building, the Webster Town Hall, the Parks Building
- Stable tax rate for services needed that Webster residents enjoy
- The Town of Webster also has the lowest town tax rate in Monroe County for a town with a Police Department. In Webster you not only have quality of life but security for your family and that all adds up to "Where Life is Worth Living".

